

Department called on

The Birtle Fire Department was called to the home of Lawrence Belhumeur last week for what turned out to be a false alarm.

On the morning of Tuesday, Apr. 26, the furnace in the basement of the Belhumeur home created a lot of smoke and consequently some smoke damage. However, a fire department spokesperson said there was no actual fire.